Kohl Children's Museum of Greater Chicago, located in Glenview, serves nearly 330,000 visitors per year with a focus on hands-on, interactive educational programming. The Museum also reaches thousands of young children, teachers and caregivers from all communities, regardless of their socioeconomic status or abilities, through targeted outreach programs that set the stage for success in school and in life.

The Chip In For Children Golf Outing attracts more than 100 players and professionals from the greater Chicago area. The private Glen View Club provides exclusive access for the day and serves as an ideal backdrop for entertaining clients, networking, and enjoying exceptional golf while supporting the Museum. Join us on the links to benefit the kids!
